

February 8, 1923

FERD LINDERT, 63, EXPIRES SUDDENLY

Ferd Dindert, 63, dropped dead at his home four miles southwest of Groton Sunday morning, while doing the chores around the farm home. The cause of his death was heart failure.

The deceased has lived here for the past 38 or 40 years, and is a highly respected citizen of this vicinity.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his wife, and a son, Leonard, age 18 years. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, after which the remains were laid to rest in Union cemetery, conducted by Rev. F. E. Wilke, of the Lutheran church, and in charge of H. Paetznick.